Definitions.

For the purposes of this form –

“relevant person” means that a pecuniary interest is a ‘disclosable pecuniary interest’ in relation to you if it is your interest, or it is an interest of your:

- (i) spouse or civil partner,
- (ii) a person with whom you are living as husband and wife, or
- (iii) a person with whom you are living as civil partners, and you are aware that the other person has the interest.

“relevant period” means 12 months ending with the day on which the member gives the notification.

“the Act” means the Localism Act 2011;

“body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;

“director” includes a member of the committee or management of an industrial and provident society;

“beneficial interest” means in relation to land ownership of the freehold or leasehold interest or any other interest such as an option to purchase. In relation to other classes of property such as securities it means ownership.

“land” includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income; and

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(b) and other securities of any description, other than money with a building society.

Guidance to Parish and Town Councillors for completing the Register of Interests Form

General Notes

1. You are only required to give details of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests as defined in The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012. Details of these are set out in the Schedule to the Code of Conduct.
2. Where relevant you must also give information in relation to your spouse, civil partner or the person with whom you are living as a spouse or civil partner. This may mean the same information is given for both of you, e.g. land in the Council's area where you are joint owners. This requirement applies to all sections of the form except section 2.
3. Note that the code of conduct provides that you can withhold details of sensitive information from the register of interests. Before taking this step you should contact your Clerk who will seek advice from the Monitoring Officer.

Section No.

- 1 Here you need to give details of your employment, office, trade etc. for which you are paid, e.g. accountant, civil servant.
The information required includes the name of your employer or firm of which you are a partner or company of which you are a remunerated director.
This does not include any voluntary work.

This information must also be given for your spouse etc

- 2 Here you must give the name/s of any individual/s or other body/ies that have made a payment towards (a) your election expenses or (b) expenses you incur in carrying out your duties as a councillor within the 12 months prior to you completing this form.

Any payments made by the Council are not included in this requirement and therefore do not have to be listed.

- 3 You must list here any contract (for goods, services or works) which is current and is made between the Council and any one of the following:
 - Yourself
 - your business
 - a firm of which you are a partner
 - a company of which you are a remunerated director
 - a company of the type referred to in section 7 of the form

This information must also be given for your spouse etc.

- 4 You must list here the address of all land within the Council's area that
 - you own
 - of which you are a tenant

- is mortgaged to you, i.e. you have lent money to the owner and your loan is secured on the land

This will usually include your home

The address only is required.

If the land holding is large or is made up of a number of pieces of land not necessarily adjoining one another, e.g. a farm, or is not easily identified by its address you can append a map showing the areas of land (edged in red for instance) and give the general address.

This information must also be given for your spouse etc.

- 5 If you have a licence to occupy land for a period of 1 month or more, e.g. a grazing licence, and that land is in the Council's area you must give the address here.

The address only is required.

This information also has to be given for your spouse etc.

- 6 You must list here the address of all land of which the Council is the landlord and the tenant is any one of the following:
- You or your own business if self employed
 - A firm of which you are a partner
 - A company of which you are a remunerated director
 - A company of the type referred to in section 7 of the form

The address only is required.

This information must also be given for your spouse etc.

- 7 If you have a shareholding in a company with a nominal value of £25,000 or more (i.e. the value on the shares and not the market value) or 1/100 of the total issued share capital and that company has a place of business or owns land in the Council's area you must give the company's name here.

This information must also be given for your spouse etc.

Once completed you must date and sign the form and return it to your Clerk who will forward it to Test Valley Borough Council's Monitoring Officer as required by the legislation. The clerk will also place a copy on the Council's web site (if there is one) and arrange for Test Valley Borough Council to place a copy on their web site.

You should check the form regularly to ensure its contents are up to date. Any changes should be notified to your Clerk in writing (including e-mail). He/she will pass the changes on to Test Valley Borough Council's Monitoring Officer.

If you have any queries contact your Clerk who will seek advice from the Monitoring Officer if necessary.
